Dear Sir,

I write to state that a requisition has been received from the Inspector of Police, Goribidnur, through the Special First Class Magistrate, Chikballapur, to obtain the original telegrams issued from Goribidnur by Mr. Pothepalli Venkatasami Gowda to Mr. T. Ramachar of Kolar dated 24th April 1938, inviting him to go to Goribidnur for organising and conducting of Satyagraha procession of young boys to Viduraswatha on 25th April 1938 and to break the order under Sec.144 Cr.P.C. passed by the Amildar-Magistrate, Goribidnur and another issued by Mr. T. Ramachar, on 25th April 1938 from Goribidnur to his brother Mr. T. Srinivasachar, informing the latter that 12 persons died as the result of the fire opened by the Police and that he (Mr. T. Ramachar) was safe.

2. On a requisition made from this office to the Superintendent of Post Offices, Bangalore Division, for arranging to secure the telegram of Mr. T. Ramachar, the Superintendent of Post Offices, writes to state that "~~as~~ according to the rules, any requisition from an Indian State for the production of a telegraph message, has to be made through a Civil Court at --- Calcutta under Sec.21 of the Indian Extradition Act of 1903. (XV of 1903)".

3. As both these references are urgently required and are of material evidence in a case against each of the accused before the Special First Class Magistrate, Chikballapur, I request you to kindly move the concerned authorities to secure the two originals of the Telegrams issued by Pothepalli Venkatasami Gowda to Mr. T. Ramachar of Kolar on the 24th April 1938 and from Mr. T. Ramachar to his brother Mr. T. Srinivasachar - from Goribidnur to Kolar on the 25th April 1938.

4. In this connection, I invite kind reference to the procedure prescribed in para 6, Cl. 3 of Chapter V of the - Criminal Rules of Practice and Circular Orders, Vol. I. In my opinion, it is easier to adopt this extra legal proceedings through the Hon'ble the Resident than to issue a Commission to a Civil Court in Calcutta. I may also state that these two - telegrams will be necessary for ^{production}~~prosecution~~ before the Enquiry Committee appointed in connection with the Viduraswatha disturbances.

5. I request the favour of very early compliance as the Committee have already started their enquiry.
